Chapter 11

ORDER ADMITTING ATTORNEY PRO HAC VICE

Upon consideration of the motion (Dkt. No. 195) filed by Michael B. Green (“Local Counsel”) seeking to admit pro hac vice Lauren M. Wagner (“Visiting Attorney”) as counsel for Bank of America, N.A. (“Client”), together with the Visiting Attorney’s declaration, it is

ORDERED that:

1. The motion is GRANTED.
2. Lauren M. Wagner is admitted pro hac vice to practice in this Court in this case, any related jointly administered case, and any related adversary proceeding, on behalf of Bank of America, N.A.

3. Visiting Attorney may apply to become a registered user of CM/ECF in accordance with applicable CM/ECF procedures.
4. Whether or not Visiting Attorney becomes a registered user of CM/ECF, Local Counsel must:
 - (a) review every document filed with the Court on Client's behalf;
 - (b) include their signature block – together with the signature block of Visiting Attorney – on every document filed with the Court on Client's behalf;
 - (c) unless otherwise ordered, attend all hearings that Visiting Attorney attends on Client's behalf; and
 - (d) not withdraw or otherwise cease serving as local counsel for Client unless and until successor local counsel has appeared.
